RE: John Tegg endorsement for Orange County Sheriff

The Florida State Lodge Fraternal Order of Police proudly recognizes the leadership qualities and law enforcement experience of Chief John Tegg of the Edgewood Police Department and announces our unanimous endorsement for the election of Chief John Tegg as the Orange County Sheriff.

Chief Tegg served the citizens of Orange County as a member of the Orange County Sheriff's Office for 27 years, rising to the rank of Division Chief. John continued to serve as a Reserve Officer for the Longwood Police Department, before accepting his current position as Chief of the Edgewood Police Department where he continues his long career in public service in law enforcement.

Recognized by his peers as a graduate of the FBI National Academy, Chief Tegg is a member of the International Association of the Chief's of Police and the Orange County Municipal Police Chief's Association. Important to our membership, John Tegg has been an active member and supporter of the Fraternal Order of Police throughout his career.

John Tegg comes to us highly recommended by Orange County FOP Lodge #93 President Kevin Carlucci. With the recommendation and support of Orange County Sheriff's Office FOP Lodge #93, Orlando Police FOP Lodge #25, Orange County Corrections Charles E. Brookfield FOP Lodge #86 and the law enforcement officers represented by the Fraternal Order of Police Florida State Lodge, we offer our support and endorsement for the campaign of Chief John Tegg for Orange County Sheriff.
